From Richmond.

Telegraphed expressly for the Bulletin.]

RICHMOND, April 17.

The Senate to-day passed a Bill making provisions for the issuance of Coin for the Confederate States, to bear such devices as the Secretary of the Treasury may advise.

Also, the House Bill making Augusta (Ga.) a Port of Entry for Goods arriving via Charleston.

Nothing is positively known of the object of the visit of the French Minister. Among various conjectures is one that he has come to ascertain what Commercial Treaties with France are contemplated, and whether the Independence of the Confederacy will be maintained; and report to the Emperor.

SECOND DISPATCH.

RICHMOND, April 17.

The House has passed a Bill to provide for the safe and expeditious transportation of troops and munitions of War by Rail Roads, by six majority.

The Bill creates the office of Military Chief of Rail Roads and transportation,—salary $5,000 per annum.

From the Peninsula.

Telegraphed expressly for the Bulletin.]

RICHMOND, April 17.

An official dispatch received this evening from Gen. Magruder, makes no mention of any subsequent fighting on the Peninsula.

He refers in terms of high commendation to the behavior of our troops in the affair of Wednesday.

Notice to Merchants.

FORWARDING OFFICE
S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expanse, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and warfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.

JAMES L. GANTT.
Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEWBERN

Daily and Weekly Progress.

IT IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC that the unceremonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villanious proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

☞ Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card. J. L. PENNINGTON.

Goldsboro, March 17, 1862.

Catch the Deserter.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD,

WILL be given for the apprehension and delivery of David Reid, who deserted Company E., 34th Regiment, North Carolina Troops, at Camp Mangum, near Raleigh, N. C., 13th January, 1862.—Said Reid is supposed to be thirty-seven years of age, five feet eleven inches high, sandy hair, blue eyes, red complexion and down look, nothing promising indicated in his appearance. Said Reid's residence is Caldwell county, N. C., where he is supposed to be lurking. Bring him in and receive the money.

PROSPECTUS

HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO

POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.

PUBLISHED AT

DENNIS HEARTT.

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 19th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the Agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall confine to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

"The Edgecombe Farm Journal,"

And will contain original and selected articles upon Agriculture, Horticulture, Floriculture, Household Arts, Rural Architecture, Zoology, &c., &c.

It will be published with new type and clear white paper, in a neat quarto form.

PROSPECTUS

STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and on occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum.....$4 00
Weekly.....2 00

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion.....$1 00
Each subsequent insertion.....25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER

THE TIMES:

A large Eight-Page Weekly published in Greensboro, N. C.

$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months;

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it is not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.

The Literary Paper of the South

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"

THE TIMES,

THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!

THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choicest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the new of the day, both foreign and domestic.

The fifth volume commences with the new year 1862. Engagements have been made to make this the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.

Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still neater dress. The Publishers are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age; their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarges each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns, and make it the literary paper of the South. With these inducements the Publishers confidently expect several thousand increase in circulation.

But as additional incentives to the friends of the South to encourage their own literary and family paper, in which they will find none of that impure and immoral reading which sometimes they get from abroad, the Publishers of THE TIMES offer

$2,500 IN PREMIUMS

For subscribers to commence with the new volume and the new year. THE TIMES is printed weekly on eight large pages, fine paper, at $2 a year, in advance. For specimen numbers and circulars address the Publishers.

THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce from the leading ports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the south, are discriminating and comprehensive. Attention is paid to all matters of general concern especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the patronage of the State Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

It will be printed in the finest style of Typography, with new type, on fine paper, handsomely embellished, and eight pages added to its former size.

Address, R. M. STOKES,

To the People of North Carolina.

At the request of President Davis, I have undertaken to collect all of the arms now in the hands of private citizens of our State. For that purpose I have been invested with authority to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, to impress them. I am satisfied that it will never be necessary to resort to the use of the last named power. Patriots of North Carolina, our soil is invaded, and though we have men enough to repel the invaders, our men are useless

CHARLOTTE, March 1, 1862.

The Conscription Bill.

This important measure was yesterday passed by the House, and the injunction of secrecy removed from the bill, though not from the various amendments it received, or which were offered to it. We are unable to say whether it has or has not yet received the Executive sanction.

At a late hour a copy of the bill, as printed after the second reading, was placed in our hands, with the information, which we believe correct, that it passed its third reading without alteration.

We give the entire copy of this most important of all public measures, as follows:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED "AN ACT TO FURTHER PROVIDE FOR THE PUBLIC DEFENCE."

In view of the exigencies of the country, and the absolute necessity of keeping in the service our gallant army, and of placing in the field a large additional force to meet the advancing columns of the enemy now invading our soil; therefore,

SECTION 1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to call out and place in the military service of the Confederate States, for three years, unless the war shall have been sooner ended, all white men who are residents of the Confederate States, between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five years at the time the call or calls may be made; who are not legally exempted from military service. All of the persons aforesaid who are not now in the armies of the Confederacy, and whose term of service will expire before the end of the war, shall be continued in the service for three years from the date of their original enlistment, unless the war shall have been sooner ended: Provided, however, That all such companies, battalions and regiments, whose term of original enlistment was for twelve months, shall have the right, within forty days, on a day to be fixed by the commander of the brigade, to re-organize said companies, battalions, and regiments, by electing all their officers, which they had a right heretofore to elect, who shall be commissioned by the President: Provided, further, That furloughs not exceeding sixty days, with transportation home and back, shall be granted to all those retained in the service by the provisions of this act beyond the period of their original enlistment, and who have heretofore not received furloughs under the provisions of an act entitled "An act providing for the granting of bounty and furloughs to privates and non-commissioned officers in the Provisional Army," approved 11th December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, said furloughs to be granted at such times and in such numbers as the Secretary of War may deem most compatible with the public interest; and Provided further, That in lieu of a furlough the commutation value in money of the transportation hereinabove granted shall be paid to each private, musician, or non-commissioned officer who may elect to receive it at such time as the furlough would otherwise be granted: Provided, further, That all persons under the age of eighteen years, or over the age of thirty-five years, who are now enrolled in the military service of the Confederate States, in the regiments, battalions and companies hereafter to be organized shall be required to remain in their respective companies, battalions and regiments for ninety days, unless their places can sooner be supplied by other recruits not now in the service, who are between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five years, and all laws and parts of laws providing for the re-enlistment of volunteers and the organization thereof into companies, squadrons, battalions or regiments, shall be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That such companies, squadrons, battalions, or regiments organized, or in process of organization, by authority from the Secretary of War, as may be within thirty days from the passage of this act so far completed as to have the whole number of men requisite for organization actually enrolled, not embracing in said organizations any persons now in service, shall be mustered into the service of the Confederate States as part of the land forces of the same, to be received in that arm of the service in which they are authorized to organize, and shall elect their company, battalion and regimental officers.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That for the enrollment of all persons comprehended within the provisions of this act who are not already in service in the armies of the Confederate States, it shall be lawful for the President, with the consent of the Governors of the respective States, to employ State officers, and, on failure to obtain such consent, he shall employ Confederate officers, charged with the duty of making such enrollment in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by him.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That persons enrolled under the provisions of the preceding section shall be assigned by the Secretary of War to the different companies now in service, until each company is filled to its maximum number, and the persons so enrolled shall be assigned to companies from the States from which they respectively came.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That all seamen and ordinary seamen in the land forces of the Confederate States, enroled under the provisions of this act, may, on application to the Secretary of the Navy, be transferred from the land forces to the Naval service.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That in all cases where a State may not have in the army a number of regiments, battalions, squadrons or companies, sufficient to absorb the number of persons subject to military service under this act, belonging to such State, then the residue or excess thereof shall be kept as a reserve, under such regulations as may be established by the Secretary of War and that at stated periods of not greater than three months, details, determined by lot, shall be made from said reserve, so that each company shall, as nearly as practicable be kept full. Provided, That the persons held in reserve may remain at home until called into service by the President. Provided, also, That during their stay at home, they shall not receive pay. Provided, further, That the persons comprehended in this act shall not be subject to the rules and articles of war until mustered into the service of the Confederate States; except that said persons, when enrolled and liable to duty, if they shall wilfully refuse to obey said call, each of them shall beheld as a deserter and punished as such under said articles: Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the President, the exigencies of the public service may require it, he shall be authorized to call into actual service the entire reserve, or so much as may be necessary, not previously assigned to different companies in service under provision of section four of this act; said reserve shall be organized under such rules as the Secretary of War may adopt: Provided, The company, battalion and regimental officers shall be elected by the troops composing the same: Provided, The troops raised in any one State shall not be combined in regimental, battalion, squadron, or company organization with troops raised in any other States.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That all soldiers now serving in the army or mustered in the military service of the Confederate States, or enrolled in said service under the authorizations heretofore issued by the Secretary of War, and who are continued in the service by virtue of this act, who have not received the bounty of fifty dollars allowed by existing laws, shall be entitled to receive said bounty.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That each man who may hereafter be mustered into the service, and who shall arm himself with a musket, shotgun, rifle or carbine, accepted as an efficient weapon, shall be paid the value thereof, to be ascertained by the mustering officer under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, if he is willing to sell the same, and if he is not, then he shall be entitled to receive one dollar a month for the use of said received and approved musket, rifle, shotgun or carbine.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That persons not liable for duty may be received as substitutes for those who are, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That all vacancies shall be filled by the President from the company, battallion, squadron or regiment in which such vacancies shall occur, by promotion according to seniority, except in cases of disability or other incompetency: Provided, however, That the President may, when, in his opinion, it may be proper, fill such vacancy or vacancies by the promotion of any officer or officers, or private or privates from such company, battallion, squadron or regiment who shall have distinguished in the service by exhibition of valour and skill; and that whenever a vacancy shall occur in the lowest grade of the commissioned officers of a company, said vacancy shall be filled by election: Provided, That all appointments made by the President shall be by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

SEC. 11. Be it further enacted, That the provisions of the first section of this act relating to the election of officers shall apply to those regiments, battalions and squadrons which are composed of twelve months and war companies combined in the same organization, without regard to the manner in which the officers thereof were originally appointed.

SEC. 12. Be it further enacted, That each company of intantry shall consist of one hundred and twenty-five rank and file; each company of field artillery of one hundred and fifty rank and file; and each of cavalry of eighty rank and file.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That all persons subject to enrollment, who are now in the service, under the provisions of this act, shall be permitted previous to such enrollment to volunteer in companies now in service.

THE ENEMY AT WARRENTON—AFFAIRS AT FAUQUIER.—We learn that the enemy are now in full possession of the beautiful town of Warrenton, the county seat of Fauquier county. The Federal troops were occupying almost every village in the county.—They steal whatever they can lay their hands upon in the shape of corn, bacon, silver, &c. They eat, without invitation, at every house they choose to call in at, and when called on for pay, have it charged to "Uncle Sam."

While encamped, a few days since, on the farm of Mr. Robert E. Scott, that gentleman went before the Yankee general and is said to have protested very defiantly his allegiance to the South. Strange to say, Mr. Scott was not arrested; and it was by his personal exertions that some dozen citizens, then under arrest, were discharged by General Garey.

Mr. Philip Picklin, a Justice of the Peace for Fauquire, who resides near the Rail Station, was arrested by order of General Sumner and brought before that functionary, was ordered to take the oath of allegiance or go to Fort Warren. Like a true man and patriot Mr. Picklin said he would rot in their dungeons first, and scornfully rejected the proposition. After remaining in custody some time he was released and sent home. This is the proper way for all to treat with the Vandals. They would soon get tired arresting the entire population of the State.

Dr. James Oden, of Loudoun, who lately captured five Yankees himself, was taken by the enemy four days since in the lower part of this county. In attempting to escape from a large party he was overtaken at a gate which he could not open, when they ordered him to surrender. "Not until I kill that d—n traitor, Downey," he replied, and levelling his revolver at the head of this wretch, who was a magistrate near Waterford, in Loudoun, and a near neighbour of the Doctor, he blew his brains out. On passing through Warrenton, Doctor Oden was heavily ironed.

The Southern Express and Telegraph Co.

For the information of the public we publish the annexed list of officers in these two institutions so indispensable in this community.

The Telegraph Line is now under the Superintendence of Thomas L. Clinton, Esq., vice W. E. Dulin, Esq., who removes to Raleigh as Superintendent at that point.

Mr. V. A. Krepps remains assistant at this office.

The Express officers are as follows:

Col. C. M. Ray, Agent.

Thos. D. Gillespie, Transportation Agent.

L. F. Bates, Route Agent.

Although this is undoubtedly one of the best officered depots, yet we regret the loss of Mr. Dulin, for he has won the esteem and respect of all who became acquainted with him. His successor, (as well as Mr. Krepps,) we are sure, is no less popular.

Of the Express Agents not a word in commendation is necessary. They are the right men in the right place.

As for Thomas—he is a personification of Chesterfield, and will always be found ready to attend to the transportation of customers as well as things, to the other side of —— wherever you may wish them sent.

You have our opinion.

Fight on Laurel.

From various sources we learn that a few companies of Confederate troops were sent from Knoxville the other day to "scour out" Laurel,—a somewhat notorious locality in Madison county, N. C., about 35 miles north of this town. Laurel is a settlement in the "big mountains," heading close up to the Tennessee line, and for some months past has been the general headquarters and hiding place for renegades and tories from Tennessee, where they were cordially received and fed by their sympathizers and abettors living in that region. The Confederate troops, as we are informed upon undoubted authority, encountered a body of these tories at Clark's Mills, where a fight ensued, and several of the tories were killed. We shall probably get the particulars of the affair in a day or two.

It is a little singular that our State authorities have never felt called upon to "roust" this den of marauders out of North Carolina. For months past they have been committing outrages upon the citizens of our own State as well as those of Tennessee, and have until now escaped with impunity. We have repeatedly called attention to their outrages, and yet no effort has been made by our state to check them. It is well the authorities everywhere are not as hard to move as our own.

The Seizure of Cars at Big Shanty.

A gentleman who arrived here last night from Atlanta, gives us the following statement in regard to the seizure of cars at Big Shanty, on Saturday last:

The train was composed of freight, mail, and passenger cars, and had stopped at Big Shanty for breakfast. The engineer, Mr. Jeff. Kane, and the conductor, Mr. W. A. Fuller, were eating at the table where they could see the train. Hearing the engine exhaust, they looked up, and saw it, the tender, and three box cars moving off. They, accompanied by Mr. Murphy, Foreman of the Atlanta Machine Shop, immediately gave chase on foot, and ran a distance of four miles, where they found a hand-car and some train hands. Mounting this car, the party continued their pursuit, until they were thrown from the track, in consequence of a rail having been torn up by the fugitives. As soon, however, as the car could be replaced, they resumed their journey, and reached Etowah, a distance of twenty miles from Big Shanty, where they found an engine belonging to Mark A. Cooper's Iron Works, and getting on that proceeded to Kingston, where they procured a Rome Railroad engine, and continued the pursuit until they captured the rascals. The down express train was met on the way, and the engine of that train joined in the chase. Several times the pursuers came in sight of the fugitives, but the latter had taken a number of cross-ties with them, which were dropping along the road as they went, thus impeding the progress of the former.

At Ringgold, there was a militia parade, and a number of men on horseback volunteered to join in the pursuit. When the fugitives passed Dalton they did not use the telegraph wires, as they had previously done, and dispatches were sent to Chattanooga, from which place a train with soldiers was sent out to meet them.

The bridge burners, for such it appears they were, came to Atlanta on the Friday night train, and desired to be waked up early the next morning to go to Big Shanty. At that place, they were seen walking very leisurely up to the cars, and seizing their opportunity, they made off with a portion of the train as already described. After proceeding some distance, they cut loose two of the cars, and set the other on fire. When the pursuing engine got up with them, they were out of fuel and water; they had picked up some wood on the way, and had burned all that fell, and whatever they could get hold of to throw into the fire box. They were eight in number, and, it is said, were sent by Gen. Mitchell, the Federal Commander at Shelbyville, Tenn., to destroy the railroad bridges along the route, so as to prevent reinforcements being sent to the Confederates in Tennessee.

Great credit is due to Messrs. Kane, Fuller, and Murphy, for the extraordinary exertions which they made to recapture their stolen cars. Their pursuit was fraught with much danger, as the bridge burners had thrown many obstructions on the track, torn it up in two places, and, it was feared, would reverse their engine and run into those pursuing them.

A part of these facts were witnessed by our informant, and the balance he obtained from the employees of the railroad. The trick of these Yankees was certainly a very daring one, but was fortunately, not successful.—Atlanta Constitutionalist, 15th.

FIRST EDITION.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Important News.

A BATTLE ON THE PENINSULA.

THE CONFEDERATES VICTORIOUS.

[Telegraphed Expressly for the Bulletin.]

RICHMOND, April 17.

An Official Dispatch received last night from Lees Farm, on the Peninsula says:

The enemy commenced a furious bombardment on our lines at half past 8 o'clock yesterday morning, which they continued until 7, P. M.

Three attacks were made upon our centre but they were splendidly repulsed. They tried to force and occupy Gen. Cobb's position, between Lees and Winn's mills, wading our Rifle Pits, but they were driven out and repulsed with heavy loss.

Our troops behaved nobly. At 10 o'clock all was quiet.

Our loss was twenty killed, including Col. McKINNY, of the 15th North Carolina.

Not over seventy-five were wounded.

Eight artillery horses were killed and one howitzer disabled.

Congressional.

[Telegraphed Expressly for the Bulletin.]

RICHMOND, April 16.

Senate.—In the Senate to-day a Bill was reported by the Committee on Postal Affairs to increase the rates of postage on single letters to ten cents, after the 1st of July. The Bill was placed on the calendar.

The Committee on the flag did not report. The chairman said that in the report of Friday the smaigo was agreed upon.

House.—In the House a voluminous report was received from the Committee to investigate the disaster at Roanoke.

War Movements.

[Telegraphed Expressly for the Bulletin.]

RICHMOND, April 16.

The enemy have taken possession of Monterey, a highland country. Their force is four thousand.

All quiet in the Valley. Jackson's force is increasing daily, but there are no indications of an early engagement.

It is reported that there has been fierce skirmishing on the Peninsular to-day.

The French Minister arrived here to-night.

The Roanoke Calamity.

[Telegraphed expressly for the Bulletin.]

RICHMOND, April 16.

The report yesterday in the House, of the Roanoke Investigation Committee, concludes by saying that whatever of blame and responsibility that should justly attribute to any one for the defeat of our troops at Roanoke Island on February 8, should attach to Major General Huger and the late Secretary of War, Benjamin.

OUR STRONG CITY.—With our noble and formidable breast-works on the Neck, our impregnable Summer and other strong fortifications in our harbor, our lines in St. Andrew's Parish; and our other numerous defences, all manned by Palmetto Boys, led by brave and skillful commanders, we may congratulate ourselves that Charleston has indeed become "a strong city." Well then may we cite and appropriate the following passage from the Prophet Isaiah, ch. xxvi., v.v. 1st and 12th:

In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah. We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

Lord, thou will ordain peace for us; for thou also wrought all our works in us.—Charleston Courier.
